Vorrede.

Vor dreyzehn Jahren habe ich es gewagt, ein Handbuch der neueren Brittiſchen und Amerikaniſchen Litteratur von zwey Jahrzehenden, unter dem Titel: Das gelehrte England oder Lexikon der jeztlebenden Schriftſteller in Groſsbrittannien, Irland und Nord-Amerika, nebſt einem Verzeichniſs ihrer Schriften; vom Jahr 1770 bis 1790. Berlin u. Stettin. 1791. herauszugeben. Dieſer erſte Verſuch iſt von Freunden der Litteratur ſo günſtig aufgenommen worden, daſs ich mir es ſogleich zur Pflicht machte, alles was zur Verbeſſerung des erſteren und zur Fortſezung deſſelben ſeit jenem Zeitpunct beytragen könnte, mit Fleiſs zu ſammeln. Ein ſolches Unternehmen erfordert eine eigene Gedult und Aufmerkſamkeit; einen Zeitaufwand, zu welchem nur eine beſondere uneigennüzige Vorliebe den Muth geben kann; aber auch dieſe würde den Nachtrag nicht zu Tage gefördert haben und meine Sammlung wäre wahrſcheinlich in meinem Pult verſchloſſen geblieben, wenn nicht der um die Ausbreitung der Litteratur in Deutſchland ſo ſehr verdiente Herr Nicolai, in Berlin, zur Bekanntmachung derſelben die Hand geboten hätte.

Gern hätte ich es, in mancher Rückſicht, geſehen, wenn auch dieſe Fortſezung in einem mäſsigen Band, ſo wie der erſte Verſuch, hätte geliefert werden können; da ich aber mich nicht bloſs auf die neuen Schriftſteller, welche ſeit dem Jahr 1790 angefangen haben zu ſchreiben, allein einſchränken durfte, ſondern, um vollſtändig zu ſeyn, auch das Verzeichniſs der Schriften, welche die älteren Schriftſteller in dem Zeitraum vom Jahr 1790-1803 oder bis an ihren Tod, geliefert haben, fortſezen muſste; da ich auſserdem, ſo wie im erſteren Verſuch auch hier, alle kleinere Abhandlungen eines Mannes, welche in den Geſellſchafts- und periodiſchen Schriften zerſtreut vorkommen, mit möglichſtem Fleiſs zuſammenſtellen wollte, ſo lieſs ſich dieſes nicht in einen Band zuſammenfaſſen.

Den Freunden der Engliſchen neuern Litteratur, welche nicht allein den litterariſchen Fleiſs eines Mannes kennen lernen oder die Geiſteswerke, welche er geliefert hat, mit einem Blick überſehen wollen, ſondern auch Nachricht von ſeiner Ausbildung, ſeinem Wirken auf andere, ſeinem häuslichem Leben u. dergl. zu leſen wünſchen, wird es nicht unangenehm ſeyn, daſs ich bey Lebenden und vorzüglich bey verſtorbenen Schriftſtellern die Werke angezeigt habe, welche Nachrichten von ihrem Leben enthalten.

Die

Die Schriftsteller, welche in dieser Fortsezuug zum erstenmahl erscheinen, habe ich mit einem Sternchen (*), vor ihrem Namen, bezeichnet; die andern Artikel ohne Sternchen, enthalten die litterarischen Arbeiten solcher Schriftsteller, welche in meinem ersten Versuch schon vorgekommen sind.

Die Berichtigungen und Zusäze zu dem erstern Werk, die dieser Nachtrag enthält, habe ich, zur Ersparung des Raums, nicht jedesmahl ausdrücklich bemerkt, weil sie ein jeder, bey angestellter Vergleichung, leicht selbst finden kann.

Seit dem Jahre 1790 sind zwey Schriftsteller-Verzeichnisse von lebenden Englischen Gelehrten erschienen; Das eine mit dem Titel:

Literary memoirs of living Authors of Great-Britain — in two volumes. London. 1798. 8.

A new catalogue of living English authors — Vol. 1. London. 1799. 8.

Dieser Band enthält die Buchstaben A-C. Sechs Bände sollten das ganze Werk beschliessen, allein noch ist nicht der zweyte Theil erschienen. Ersteres ist sehr unvollständig und wenig genau, etwas besser ist das zweyte; allein beyde ungenannte Verfasser haben die lebenden Gelehrten und ihre angeführten Schriften grossentheils mit einer partheyischen, öfters bittern und inhumanen Characteristick begleitet, welche nicht zur Würdigung ihrer litterarischen Bemühungen gehört.

Auch diefesmahl koftete es mich nicht geringe Mühe zu erfahren, ob ein Schriftfteller noch lebt und in welchem Jahr er geftorben ift; bey mehreren habe ich defswegen ein Frage-Zeichen (?) beygefezt, wo ich gefunden habe, dafs eine Abhandlung nach feinem Tode erft gedruckt worden ift; aber dafs ich nicht manchen, der längft geftorben ift, noch unter die Lebenden gezählt habe, kann ich nicht verbürgen. Ich wiederhohle daher meine Bitte mich mit Berichtigungen und Beyträgen zu unterftüzen;

Möchte ich eben das Glück, wie Herr Profeffor Erfch in Halle, geniefsen und folche Berichtigungen und Beyträge aus England felbft erhalten, wie der achtungs-würdige Litterator des Gelehrten Frankreich's fie fo reichlich aus Frankreich felbft erhielt!
